A Brand New Day: A Banana Split Story is a children's picture book about divorce. It tells the story of a little girl who has to split her time between two homes so that she can spend time with her mother and father throughout the week. The book is written in gentle rhyme accompanied by beautiful artwork with a muted colour palette.

The story also introduced the concept of a blended family as the little girl inherits a step brother. The story never once mentions the word "divorce" and presents this life challenge in a positive light. The book was written to demonstrate that despite being in divorce family, the child can still create special moments with each parent and still be very loved.

Pigeonhole Books creates children's picture books for blended, divorced, multicultural and same-sex families. It is a gentle resource that aims to deal with life's challenges through beautiful illustrations and loving words.

"Mondays and Tuesdays are fun, going on cooking adventures with Dad. We look forward to Wednesdays and Thursday too when we get to be a green thumb with Mum. Don't forget the holidays! Spring breaks with Mum and hot summer camping with Dad. Each day is a truly special day!"
