Il senso delle cose (Le Navi) (Italian Edition) Angela Ales Bello

Questo libro propone una nuova chiave interpretativa per leggere, e superare, la contrapposizione tra idealismo e realismo. Al centro c'è il modo nel quale avviene la conoscenza umana, il rapporto tra l'io e il mondo, campo d'indagine della fenomenologia che non può, e non deve, rimanere chiuso all'interno dei confini della disciplina. Obiettivo della ricerca è allora anche confrontarsi con l'interesse per il realismo che caratterizza il dibattito contemporaneo, nell'intento di scardinarne gli automatismi e i pregiudizi. Angela Ales Bello rileva come alla base della controversia tra realismo e idealismo ci siano spesso equivoci di natura semantica e, risalendo alle origini della fenomenologia moderna, mette in discussione l'interpretazione del concetto husserliano di idealismo trascendentale. Lungo questa strada – disinnescando gli estremi di un idealismo acritico e di un realismo ingenuo – la filosofa giunge a proporre un “realismo trascendentale”, orizzonte di un'unità dinamica che abbraccia il processo conoscitivo e che fonda la correlazione, non la subordinazione, di soggetto e oggetto. L'indagine di questa reciprocità oltrepassa così i confini dell'ambito gnoseologico, e conduce alle domande fondamentali sul senso ultimo delle cose e sulla loro origine.
