Obras reunidas II. Narrativa (Literatura) (Spanish Edition) Margo Glantz

La narrativa de Glantz se construye por la acumulación de fragmentos que, como por una casualidad rara, se construyendo como los fragmentos de una trama, si bien son el lenguaje, la organización textual, y la estructura los que le otorgan su densidad como relato. En la arqueología de lo frívolo que hace Glantz - postales, cabellos, ballenas y hasta lecturas- el lector descubrirá la importancia de los objetos cotidianos que ganan peso por las situaciones y asociaciones que plantean, por la exploración a partir de ellos de aspectos de la vida que sólo una mujer puede explorar: una escritura que es, en ese sentido, también feminista. Este segundo tomo de las Obras reunidas de la autora ofrece su crónica reconstruida Las genealogías, sus ensayos reatos El día de tu boda, Doscientas ballenas azules, Síndrome de naufragios y De la amorosa inclinación a enredarse los cabellos.
