Rejse i blå (Danish Edition) Stig Dalager

Året er 1875. H.C. Andersen ligger for døden i villaen Rolighed på det gamle Østerbro med udsigt over Øresund. Et helt livs triumfer og smerte sløres af morfin, og Andersens liv passerer revy: Fra opvæksten i Odense over ungdommen i København til rejserne i Europa som tiljublede berømmelse. "Rejse i blå" er en roman både om kunstneren og mennesket Andersen. En på én gang digterisk og kulegravende vision af geniet - den eksistentielt hjemløse og religiøst bundne Andersen. En mand, der er stadigt rejsende i tilværelsen og kunsten, og som finder sine forløsninger i en til tider feberagtig skabende aktivitet - og i sit møde med de blå bjerges Italien. "Rejse i blå" er oversat til 15 sprog og er af Københavns Hovedbibliotek nomineret til den prestigefyldte internationale Impac Prize. Stig Dalager, født 19. oktober 1952, debuterede som forfatter i 1980 og har siden skrevet bøger fordelt på alle litterære genrer. "Dalager får Andersen til at leve, at blive forstået i sin genialitet på menneskelige præmisser. Dalagers roman om eventyrdigteren er stor kuns om en stor kunstner." - Lars Ole Sauerberg, Jyllands-Posten "... et spændstigt H.C. Andersen-portræt ... konstruktionen dødsleje og erindring slår gnister." - Mette Winge, Politiken "Historien er fortalt med vemod og aftenlufter, sprød åbenhed og sky fortrolighed. Med en nervøs hudløshed, der aldrig bliver udleverende." - Liselotte Wiemer, Weekendavisen "... et anerkendt mesterværk ..." - Ian McMillan, BBC
