The Paradisians have finally reached Illaria, but the ancient lintep stronghold is not the sanctuary it was made out to be. Rilla and Plyke may have found a new family, but they quickly discover that their human companions are less than welcome.

However, convincing the Illarian Council of Masters to allow Arishen and Tika to stay will be the least of the Paradisians' problems, as Plyke struggles to control his newly discovered powers and Rilla endeavours to escape her heritage.

Eliséo no longer by her side, Rilla must learn to control her powers without the aid of Elessa. Should the connection to her Silvaren allies become known, more than Rilla's life will be at risk. With her half sister already in the clutches of the rogue lintep, Lishe, Rilla must learn everything she can of her history and the prophecy surrounding her before Lishe hunts her down.
