God, What's Missing?: Going to Church and Still Empty Carol Peet

God, What's Missing? deals with the gender stereotypes created by a universal belief structure that has been infiltrated with lies and causes limitations for all individuals whether women or men, married or single, in church or out of church. Peet goes into great detail proving that wholeness and happiness does not come through a spouse or any other person, but must be discovered in personal Godgiven identity, value, and purpose.
