Whale Shines: An Artistic Tale Fiona Robinson

All day, Whale swims through the ocean, wearing a poster advertising the big upcoming art exhibition. He visits the eel who wriggles abstract patterns in the sand, the squid who paints with ink, and the hammerhead shark who builds sculptures from salvage. Whale sees his friends' confidence and creativity and wishes he could be an artist too, but he doesn't know what to make and insists he's too ungainly to create art. Then one day, with the unexpected help of some bioluminescent plankton, he discovers his own distinct point of view and talent.

From the award-winning author-illustrator of What Animals Really Like, hailed by School Library Journal as "sublime silliness" comes another inspiring tale about defying expectation and finding the artist within.

Praise for Whale Shines:

* "Up-to-the-minute modern in its irreverence and offhandedness, yet timeless in its understanding of a character's yearning." —Publishers Weekly, starred review
