1981 Adventure and silver prospecting beckon in Rajasthan, India. The expedition encounters local dacoits, state nationalists, border guards, Western tourists plus Iranian and Chinese ostensibly after nuclear secrets. The bad guy Rajasthan nationalists also seem to be entangled with the revived sinister ancient cult of Thugee led by their priestess of Kali. This is set in the Marusthali desert, the region of death.

The adventure ranges from old desert forts to hidden ancient temples as Alice and the narrator with old friends from Baluchistan endeavour to find silver amongst the bloody skirmishes and puzzle out the whole mystery. Travel is by horse and camel in the trackless waste. An exciting adventure full of action, humour, romance and history. This is part of the saga of the Woden born in time but is a completely independent story. Approx 833 pages
