And Catch the Heart Off Guard Fr. Brian D'Arcy

Now nearing his seventieth birthday, Brian D'Arcy is in a somewhat more contemplative mood in this, his latest book. Fr D'Arcy reaches out to people to share something of his deep faith and his conviction of the boundless love of God. He speaks to people of faith and people of none, for what he has to say speaks to the heart and the great human longing for acceptance and love. Always a man blessed with the common touch, he speaks in ordinary, everyday language because he understands the value of clear communication. Though this book is quintessentially D'Arcy, in that it offers a collection of thoughts, reflections and stories from the heart, it is hoped that these thoughts and reflections will continue to both challenge and comfort the reader. As we can see different things in a piece of writing depending on our mood or frame of mind on any given day, one reading will not exhaust what this book has to offer.
