Three isn't company — it's an invasion! At least that's what Lee Singer thinks when her parents park their RV behind her home on an extended visit, and do what they don't do best — meddle in her (nonexistent) love life!

On the other hand, the man who arrives in town with an adorable infant in tow is infinitely more intriguing. A mature and quite handsome Adam Benton is nothing like the adolescent boy Lee remembers. As Lee helps Adam raise his one-year-old, she realizes it's more than an old kinship she feels with Adam. More than camaraderie...

Suddenly three is infinitely better than one — as long as Adam is her partner!
