Historia mínima de la revolución cubana (Biblioteca Turner) (Spanish Edition) Rafael Rojas

Una historia breve y completa de la Cuba reciente, desde el golpe de Batista hasta las últimas medidas de Raúl Castro. La Revolución cubana fue un acontecimiento decisivo de la historia latinoamericana en la segunda mitad del siglo xx. La guerra fría consolidó a Cuba como actor político internacional, a medida que los dirigentes cubanos apoyaban las guerrillas de otros países con el fin de extender la revolución. La institucionalización del régimen revolucionario fue un proceso lento y lleno de virajes, condicionado tanto por factores internos como externos.
