Una novela de barrio. (Inspector Méndez) (Spanish Edition) Francisco González Ledesma

La novena novela de la serie del inspector Méndez.

En la Barcelona de los años setenta, un atraco a mano armada acaba en tragedia: en plena huida, los dos atracadores se llevan por delante la vida de un niño inocente. Pasados los años, uno de esos atracadores muere asesinado, mientras que el otro toma cartas en el asunto para evitar ser el siguiente, ya que sospecha de la autoría del padre del menor fallecido. Si se trata de un acto premeditado de venganza, sin duda él seguirá la suerte de su antiguo compañero.

El comisario Ricardo Méndez, policía curtido en mil lances a punto de jubilarse, deberá aportar toda su experiencia para desentrañar un caso que mezcla acontecimientos frescos con heridas aún abiertas del pasado. Todo ello en una Barcelona que nada tiene que ver ya con la ciudad ruda pero honesta que patrulló tiempo atrás, aunque tampoco con el paraíso turístico que muchos siguen empeñados en vender.

Una novela de barrio, Premio Internacional RBA en 2007, recupera la esencia del González Ledesma más auténticamente policíaco: áspero al tiempo que sutil.

Francisco González Ledesma (Barcelona, 1927)

Pionero de la novela policíaca española, en 1948, con apenas 21 años ganó el Premio Internacional de Novela; des de entonces ha obtenido numerosos galardones y, en dos ocasiones, el premio Mystère a la mejor novela extranjera publicada en Francia. Con Una novela de barrio obtuvo el Premio Internacional de Novela Negra RBA 2007.
