Las siete maravillas (Novela histórica) (Spanish Edition) Steven Saylor

Una novela sobre el Mundo Antiguo

Autor de los bestsellers ROMA e IMPERIO

Año 92 a.C. Gordiano acaba de cumplir dieciocho años y está a punto de embarcarse en la aventura de su vida: un periplo que le llevará a contemplar las Siete Maravillas del mundo. Gordiano no es conocido todavía como «el Sabueso», pero en cada una de las Siete Maravillas, el joven e ingenuo romano descubrirá un misterio que desafiará sus poderes de deducción.

Antípatro de Sidón, su anciano tutor y el poeta más celebrado del momento, lo acompaña en su viaje. Pero el inofensivo poeta esconde mucho más de lo que a primera vista parece. Antes de salir de casa, finge su propia muerte para realizar la gira bajo una identidad falsa. De manera amenazadora, se vislumbran los primeros indicios de una revuelta política que sacudirá el mundo romano en su totalidad.

Maestro y discípulo viajan a las legendarias ciudades de Grecia y Asia Menor, y después a Babilonia y Egipto. Asisten a los Juegos Olímpicos, participan en exóticos festivales y se maravillan ante las construcciones más espectaculares jamás concebidas por la humanidad. Por el camino encuentran asesinatos, brujería y obsesiones fantasmagóricas.

Combinando misterio, magia y descubrimiento con una irresistible mirada al mundo antiguo, sus maravillas y sus intrigas, Steven Saylor acaba revelándonos la historia no contada de Gordiano y cómo se convirtió en el hombre conocido como «el Sabueso».

Steven Saylor (Texas, 1956) es autor de una serie de novelas ambientadas en los últimos años de la República romana, denominada Roma Sub Rosa, que se ha traducido a dieciocho idiomas y le ha convertido en una referencia internacional del género. Como experto en vida cotidiana romana y en los políticos de la época, ha participado en varios documentales del Canal de Historia.

Actualmente vive entre Berkeley, California, y Austin, Texas.
