Las horas del silencio (Novela (roca)) (Spanish Edition) Rafael Martín Masot, Marta Martín Masot

La nueva novela de los hermanos Masot consagra a sus autores como dos de los narradores jóvenes más interesantes del género de la novela histórica en nuestro país. En Las horas del silencio recrean un maravilloso fresco de la España del siglo xx, donde los destinos de unos personajes aparentemente no conectados entre sí acaban confluyendo en un final tan revelador como emotivo.

Verano de 1966. En alguna ciudad del sur de España, Ana Gaitán, marquesa de Galianza, le devuelve al obispo Damián Belmonte un reloj que este olvidó en el dormitorio de la dama treinta años atrás, cuando el obispo, entonces un cura, se protegía de un Madrid en plena Guerra Civil. Ana Gaitán se presenta de nuevo para pedirle un favor: deberá encandilar a su cuñada Teresa Valdeolivas, a pesar de que la pasión que Ana siente hacia el antiguo cura ha vuelto a despertar. Barranca de las Paveras, 1917. Paula Belmonte ha nacido con una malformación en las piernas. Sus padres son unos campesinos analfabetos y el pueblo está dominado por la superstición. El pequeño Damián, de seis años, no deja de preguntarse por qué su hermana ha nacido así.
