Seminar paper del año 2009 en el tema Romanística - Español, literatura, cultura general, Nota: 1,7,

Universidad de Alicante, Idioma: Español, Resumen: La razón porque América Latina puede presentar abundantes poetas destacados se puede encontrar principalmente en los años 20 del Siglo XX. Eso no quiere decir que antes no había otros, pero aquellos aún no jugaron un gran papel en Europa. Y ya que Europa estaba el “mekka” de la literatura en este tiempo, allí sentaron las nuevas bases.

Eran los modernistas y vanguardistas latinoamericanos, cuales, a lo mejor animados por corrientes europeas, rompieron con la tradición y empezaron a postular una literatura independiente. Uno entre ellos era Vicente Huidobro. Primero planteó su teoría del creacionismo en América Latina y después se la llevaron a Europa donde tenía mucho éxito. Hay que contemplar esto como un hito para la autognosis de la literatura hispanoamericana.

Este trabajo trata brevemente de la vida y la obra de Vicente Huidobro. Más adelante se ocupará de esta dicha teoría creacionista en detalle aclarándola por medio del poema “Arte poética”.
