Shawn had a number of different places that he took Robin depending on what kind of sex he wanted. Sometimes, he'd take her to a nice hotel and they'd make love and then she'd stick around for a while and make use of the minibar. If he was in a kinky mood, he'd take her to a cheap motel and bring along a bag of whips and masks and ball gags and they'd spend a couple of hours doing that shit. When he was feeling particularly lonely, Shawn Heckt would take Robin to his own home. They'd have sex a couple of times and then she'd just lie in bed and hold him until it was time to clock out. Technically, Robin wasn't suppose to do most of this stuff. It was her job to have sex and nothing more, but she liked Shawn and she enjoyed spending time with him. To a degree, she felt bad for him, but she also found him to be quite attractive and having sex with him blurred the lines between pleasure and work. He was also attentive and caring and would listen to her talk about her life and would also tell her to come to him if she was ever struggling to pay her rent or any bills. In a way, Shawn was the closest thing she had ever had to a boyfriend. In fact, he may have been the closest thing she had ever had to a friend.
